

CALL FOR SUBMISSIONS FOR NEW BOOK

Do you have experience living with a disability or know someone who does?

The British Columbia Aboriginal Network on Disability Society (www.bcands.ca) is looking for contributions of unpublished poems, songs, personal stories and artwork for the inspirational disability guide, "Safe and Secure, Steps on The Path to a Good Life for People with Disabilities". This free guide book will include resources, supports, stories and art supporting Indigenous people with disabilities and their families.

Chosen submissions will be published in the printed and electronic version of the book, offering a unique opportunity to showcase your work or share your experience.

Who can apply:

Indigenous people with a disability, Elders, Healers, family members, support workers and anyone who has a connection to an Indigenous individual living with a disability, are invited to contribute.

Themes could include:

Living with a disability, friendship, support, independence and overcoming obstacles.

How to submit:

Email submissions with form to: ndunne@planinstitute.ca

For further information or forms: email or call 604 439 9566 ext. 154

Deadline for submissions is February 12th, 2018
